OCEAN 215 - Community Norms
Created by all in the course. Upheld by all in the course.

⭐ = agree

❓ = question

Ground rules

1. Contribute
2. Listen
3. Ask questions
4. Support and respect each other
5. Monitor air time
6. Intent vs. impact

Expectations for YOURSELF:

- Don't be afraid to fail or make mistakes
⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Ask for an explanation/hint instead of an answer ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Attend class and learn ⭐⭐⭐
- Be bold and brave ⭐⭐
- Be involved ⭐⭐
- Retain material (syntax, etc.) ⭐⭐
- Learn from mistakes ⭐⭐
- Be intentional/put effort into learning the material ⭐⭐
- Meet new people ⭐⭐
- Learn how to use GitHub ❓❓⭐⭐
- Learn how to code and apply course material ⭐
- Take risks

Expectations for your PEERS:

- Actually speaking to other students on Zoom can help, believe it or not :)
⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Criticize ideas, not people ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Help one another ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Not everyone is on the same level, don't talk down to people ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Don't judge others' issues in coding ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Get to know each other ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- If working in a group, don't move on until everyone is comfortable ⭐⭐⭐

- Provide explanations with answers ⭐⭐⭐⭐

Expectations for your INSTRUCTORS:
- Patience with students when explaining new ideas and concepts ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Good examples are helpful ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Clearly define expectations for assignments ⭐⭐⭐⭐
- Don't just throw us into an assignment without info on it, give the information needed ⭐⭐
- Proper pacing per topic ⭐⭐
- Proper guidance = clear direction ⭐⭐
- Examples are key in learning, as humans are great at pattern recognition ⭐
- Opportunity for breaks during Zoom meetings